

2012 SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

The Bio-Process Systems Alliance (BPSA) experienced a banner year in 2011, adding thirteen new member companies and launching two highly-successful events: the International Single-Use Summit and the End User Road Show. BPSA’s success was due in large part to the generous support of our sponsors. In order to continue this momentum in 2012, we ask that your company consider a 2012 BPSA sponsorship.

Sponsorships will:

- Support BPSA events;
- Sustain BPSA’s advocacy of single-use manufacturing technologies;
- Reinforce your company’s position as a leader in Single-Use Technology arena; and
- Allow you to develop and nurture relationships with key industry leaders.
